HIGH COURT OF AUSTRALIA

LIBRARY

LEGAL RESEARCH OFFICER

High Court Employee Level 6
($76,501 - $86,991)

The High Court of Australia Library offers an opportunity for a highly qualified law graduate to undertake research and analysis on contemporary legal issues at the direction of the Justices and in association with the Justices' Associates. Suitable applicants would be likely to possess a masters or high honours degree in law and desirably some experience in practice or post-graduate research.

The research officer is attached to the High Court Library in Canberra and works with the other professional staff of the Library, with access to computerised legal databases and to the collections of the other major law libraries.

The position is intended to furnish an opportunity for further development of research skills appropriate to professional practice or academic appointment. Accordingly an engagement is offered for one year with a possible extension. The next position will be available in January 2017. Expressions of interest accompanied by curriculum vitae and a copy of academic record are invited by Monday, 18 July 2016.

For further information about the position please contact John Botherway, Court Librarian, on (02) 6270 6921 or email john.botherway@hcourt.gov.au or write to PO Box 6309, Kingston, ACT 2604.

The High Court of Australia is an equal opportunity employer and is encouraging a non-smoking environment.