HEALEY
v
THE KING
[2026] HCADisp 289
M82/2026

1 The applicant applies for an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from part of the judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of Victoria (Boyce and Whelan JJA and Elliott AJA) refusing the applicant's application for leave to appeal against conviction by a jury in the County Court of Victoria for burglary and theft of firearms.

2 The application involves no question of law of public importance and has insufficient prospects of success to make it in the interests of the administration of justice, either generally or in the particular case, to require consideration by this Court of the judgment to which the application relates. It would therefore be futile to grant the extension of time that is sought.

3 Special leave to appeal is refused.
