

KAMAL
v
MINISTER FOR IMMIGRATION, CITIZENSHIP AND MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS & ANOR
[2024] HCASL 152
M80/2023

1 The applicant applies for an extension of time to apply for special leave to appeal from a judgment of the Full Court of the Federal Court of Australia (Rares, Bromwich and Raper JJ), dismissing the applicant's appeal against orders made by the Federal Court of Australia (Mortimer J) which had dismissed the applicant's application for judicial review of a decision of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal which upheld a delegate's refusal to revoke the cancellation of the applicant's visa.

2 The proposed appeal does not raise any question of general importance and has insufficient prospects of success to justify a grant of special leave. The applicant does not identify any feature which requires consideration by this Court in the interests of the administration of justice, generally or in this case. It would be futile to grant the extension.

3 Special leave to appeal is refused with costs.
