v
MINISTER FOR IMMIGRATION, CITIZENSHIP AND MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS & ANOR
[2024] HCASL 97
S16/2024

1           The applicant applies for an extension of time to apply for special leave to appeal from a judgment of the Full Court of the Federal Court of Australia (Burley, Lee and Raper JJ) dismissing the applicant's appeal against the dismissal of the applicant's application for judicial review by the Federal Court of Australia (Bromwich J) of a decision of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal, which had dismissed an application for merits review of a decision of a delegate of the first respondent on the grounds that the Tribunal did not have jurisdiction.

2           The proposed appeal does not raise any question of general importance and it is not otherwise in the interests of justice for leave to be granted. The applicant does not identify any cogent reason to doubt the correctness of the decision of the Full Court or any feature which requires consideration by this Court in the interests of the administration of justice, generally or in this case. It would be futile to grant the extension.

3           Special leave to appeal is refused with costs.
