

FRIGGER
v
THE STATE OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA
[2025] HCADisp 97
P4/2025

- 1 The applicant requires an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from a judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of Western Australia (Mazza, Mitchell and Hall JJA). The applicant appealed against her conviction to the Court of Appeal, which found error on the part of the trial judge but dismissed the appeal on that basis that no substantial miscarriage of justice occurred.
- 2 There is no reason to doubt the correctness of the decision of the Court of Appeal. The proposed appeal does not otherwise raise a question of public importance, nor does it engage the interests of the administration of justice. It would therefore be futile to grant the extension of time.
- 3 Special leave to appeal is refused.
