

ROUT
v
DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS (SA)
[2025] HCADisp 99
A4/2025

- 1 The applicant requires an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from the whole of a judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of South Australia (Livesey P, Doyle and David JJA) in which the Court of Appeal granted the applicant permission to appeal but dismissed an appeal against conviction by the District Court of South Australia (Judge Davison) following a trial by judge sitting alone.
- 2 The proposed appeal does not have sufficient prospects of success to warrant a grant of special leave. Nor does it raise any issue of law of general application or public importance. It would therefore be futile to grant the extension of time sought.
- 3 Special leave to appeal is refused.
