

GHANI
v
NASSIF & ANOR
[2025] HCADisp 244
S124/2025

- 1 The applicant requires an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from the whole of the judgment of the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 1) Appellate Jurisdiction (Aldridge J), which dismissed the applicant's appeal on the basis of his non-attendance pursuant to r 13.31 of the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Family Law) Rules 2021 (Cth). The applicant had appealed from a decision of the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2) (Judge Street) in which an order was made that the applicant's children spend no time with the applicant.
- 2 The proposed appeal raises no point of principle and would have no prospects of success. It is not in the interests of the administration of justice, either generally or in this case, for special leave to appeal to be granted. It would therefore be futile to grant the extension of time that is sought.
- 3 Special leave to appeal is refused.
