

JAWORSKI
v
CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND
[2025] HCADisp 247
S131/2025

- 1 The applicant requires an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from the whole of the judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of New South Wales (Stern JA), which dismissed an appeal as incompetent from the Supreme Court of New South Wales (Black J), which refused an application for an order that the respondent, in effect, would indemnify the applicant for the future legal costs of a proposed claim in the respondent's name against its directors, officers, and former directors and officers, and an application for that application to be dealt with ex parte in accordance with the approach suggested in Wallersteiner v Moir (No 2) [1975] 1 QB 373.
- 2 The application does not raise any question of law of public importance and the proposed appeal has no prospects of success. It would therefore be futile to grant the extension of time that is sought.
- 3 Special leave to appeal is refused.

Edelman J
Gleeson J

6 November 2025