

GROOM
v
POLICE
[2025] HCADisp 17
A25/2024

- 1       The applicant requires an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from a judgment of the Full Court of the Supreme Court of South Australia (Kourakis CJ, Nicholson and Hinton JJ), which dismissed an application for permission to appeal from a judgment of the Supreme Court of South Australia (Vanstone J).
- 2       The application for special leave to appeal does not raise a question of law of public importance and any appeal would have no prospects of success. It is not in the interests of the administration of justice, either generally or in this case, for special leave to appeal to be granted. It would therefore be futile to grant the extension of time that is sought.
- 3       Special leave to appeal is refused.
