

PEERS
v
FLETCHER & ANOR
[2025] HCADisp 20
M115/2024

- 1 The applicant requires an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from the whole of the judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of Victoria (Kaye JA) of 21 November 2024 which refused the applicant's application for an extension of time to file an application for leave to appeal from orders made by the Supreme Court of Victoria in two separate proceedings (Gorton J and Watson J).
- 2 The application for special leave to appeal does not raise a question of law of public importance and any appeal would have no prospects of success. It is not in the interests of the administration of justice, either generally or in this case, for special leave to appeal to be granted. It would therefore be futile to grant the extension of time that is sought.
- 3 Special leave to appeal is refused.

Gordon J
Beech-Jones J

6 March 2025