

SANCHEZ
v
LEIGH
[2026] HCADisp 55
P48/2025

- 1 The applicant seeks special leave to appeal from a judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of Western Australia (Mitchell and Vaughan JJA) which refused leave to appeal and dismissed the applicant's appeal from orders made by the District Court of Western Australia (Judge Zempilas) which, in turn, allowed the respondent's appeal from the Magistrates Court of Western Australia (Magistrate J Andretich) and remitted the matter to the Magistrates Court for a final orders hearing to determine the respondent's substantive application for a final restraining order.
- 2 The Court of Appeal's decision is plainly correct. The respondent to this application, who is unrepresented, accepts that no order as to costs should be made.
- 3 Special leave to appeal is refused.
