

ABBAS
v
THE KING
[2026] HCADisp 142
M21/2026

- 1 The applicant requires a significant extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from a judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of Victoria (Priest, Kaye and T Forrest JJA), which refused the applicant's application for leave to appeal against sentence imposed by the Supreme Court of Victoria (Tinney J) for one count of conspiring with others to do acts in preparation for or planning a terrorist act.
- 2 The proposed appeal does not have sufficient prospects of success to warrant a grant of special leave to appeal, nor does it raise any point of general principle suitable for the grant of special leave to appeal. It would therefore be futile to grant the extension of time that is sought.
- 3 Special leave to appeal is refused.
