v
QUEENSLAND BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION COMMISSION
[2026] HCADisp 134
B22/2026

- 1       The applicant seeks special leave to appeal from the whole of the judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of Queensland (Bradley JA, with whom Mullins P and Boddice JA agreed), which refused the applicant leave to appeal from a decision of the appeal tribunal of the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal ("the QCAT") which, in turn, refused the applicant's application for leave to appeal, and appeal, against a decision of the QCAT confirming a decision of the respondent to issue a direction to rectify to the applicant.

- 2       The application for special leave to appeal does not raise a point of principle and has no prospects of success. It is not in the interests of the administration of justice, either generally or in the particular case, for special leave to appeal to be granted.

- 3       Special leave to appeal is refused with costs.
