

LBH
v
THE KING
[2026] HCADisp 139
B14/2026

- 1 The applicant requires an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from a judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of Queensland (Boddice and Bradley JJA and Kelly J) which dismissed the applicant's appeal against conviction for one count of maintaining a sexual relationship with a child, following a trial before Judge Cash and a jury in the District Court of Queensland.

- 2 The proposed appeal does not give rise to any question of law of general application or public importance, nor does it have sufficient prospects of success to warrant a grant of special leave to appeal. It would therefore be futile to grant the extension of time that is sought.

- 3 Special leave to appeal is refused.
