

WANG
v
MINISTER FOR IMMIGRATION AND CITIZENSHIP & ANOR
[2026] HCADisp 153
B31/2026

- 1 The applicant requires an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from the whole of the judgment of a single judge exercising the appellate jurisdiction of the Federal Court of Australia (Sarah C Derrington J), which dismissed the applicant's appeal from orders made by the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2), which in turn dismissed the applicant's application for judicial review of a decision made by the then Administrative Appeals Tribunal to affirm a decision of a delegate of the first respondent not to grant the applicant a subclass 820 temporary partner visa.
- 2 The application does not raise any question of general principle and there is no reason to doubt the correctness of the decision of the Federal Court to warrant a grant of special leave to appeal. It would accordingly be futile to grant the extension of time that is sought.
- 3 Special leave to appeal is refused.
- 4 The applicant's interlocutory application filed on 30 July 2026 is dismissed.
