

AZO24
v
REGISTRAR, REGISTRY OF NEW SOUTH WALES, FEDERAL COURT OF AUSTRALIA & ANOR
[2026] HCADisp 190
S51/2026

- 1 The applicant requires an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from orders 1 to 5 of a judgment of the Full Court of the Federal Court of Australia (Wigney, Lee and Raper JJ), dismissing the applicant's appeal from a decision of the Federal Court of Australia (Kennett J) to summarily dismiss various claims made by the applicant against the Commonwealth of Australia and the State of New South Wales and from a decision of the Federal Court of Australia (Needham J) dismissing the applicant's application for judicial review of a decision of a Registrar to refuse to accept documents for filing.
- 2 An appeal to this Court would enjoy no prospects of success and does not raise any question of law of public importance. It would therefore be futile to grant the extension of time that is sought.
- 3 Special leave to appeal is refused.
