v
THE KING
[2026] HCADisp 243
B52/2026

1 The applicant requires an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from the whole of the judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of Queensland (Boddice, Brown and Doyle JJA), which dismissed the applicant's appeal against conviction following a trial before a jury in the District Court of Queensland (Judge Power), and which was preceded by a pre-trial ruling allowing the cross-admission of propensity evidence (Judge Lynch).

2 The application for special leave does not raise a question of principle of general public importance and any appeal, if special leave to appeal was granted, has insufficient prospects of success to warrant a grant of special leave. It would accordingly be futile to grant the extension of time that is sought.

3 Special leave to appeal is refused.
