KARUDALE PTY LTD
v
COMMISSIONER OF POLICE
[2026] HCADisp 226
A27/2026

1 The applicant requires an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from the whole of the judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of South Australia (S Doyle and Stanley JJA), which refused the applicant's application for leave to appeal from the decision of the Supreme Court of South Australia (McIntyre J), which, in turn, dismissed the applicant's appeal against conviction in the Magistrates Court of South Australia of being the owner of a vehicle that exceeded the speed limit by 10 to 19 km/h contrary to r 20 of the Australian Road Rules and s 79B of the Road Traffic Act 1961 (SA).

2 The application for special leave to appeal does not raise any point of principle and any appeal, if special leave to appeal were granted, has no prospects of success to warrant a grant of special leave. It is not in the interests of the administration of justice, either generally or in this case, for special leave to appeal to be granted. It would accordingly be futile to grant the extension of time that is sought.

3 Special leave to appeal is refused.
