REYNOLDS
v
BYRAM & ORS
[2026] HCADisp 271
P32/2026

1 The applicant requires an extension of time within which to seek special leave to appeal from the whole of the judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Supreme Court of Western Australia (Mitchell, Hall and Archer JJA), which dismissed the applicant's application for an extension of time to comply with a self-executing order of that Court requiring the applicant to file a compliant appellant's case by a specified deadline or otherwise have his appeal dismissed.

2 The application does not raise any question of general principle, there are insufficient prospects of success and it is otherwise not in the interests of the administration of justice, either generally or in this case, for special leave to appeal to be granted. It would accordingly be futile to grant the extension of time that is sought.

3 Special leave to appeal is refused. The applicant's interlocutory application to this Court filed 1 October 2026 seeking various orders is also dismissed.
