v.

THE LICENSING COMMISSION AND ANOTHER

There are before us an appeal and an application for special leave to appeal from an order of the Full Court of the Supreme Court of Queensland.

We are of the opinion that, as is virtually conceded, the appeal does not lie without special leave, and we have considered whether such leave should be granted. We are of opinion that there is no substance in any of the contentions put forward by Mr. Aickin, and accordingly the application will be refused with costs.

The appeal also will be dismissed with costs, on the ground that it is incompetent.
